Dear Sir

I received your account against Still last evening, and now enclose you the balance of his account in Bank Notes, amounting to two hundred & thirty dollars 63/100 less 63¢ retained until you call for it - This falls short of your demand against Still, but from what I have seen of your charges I think you will be well paid. Stills balance was reduced by my charging him a Seaman wages 5 months $10 pr month to supply his place after he deserted

Respectfully Yours

Signed Wm T. Russell

Sir Your letter of 31st ulto came to hand during my absence from home. In reply to your enquiries respecting Harlow who was a Sailor on board Ship Braganza I have to state, that I have paid the ballance due him to David Patterson of this place by his order I never heard before of his being a minor & if he is, he is the oldest looking minor I ever saw - Since however I settled with Harlow I have made a deduction from one of the Steersmans lay, who proved incompetent and as Harlow steered a boat part of the voyage I am willing to allow him a Share of it & I will pay it to any one legally authorised to receive it. This however you will please understand is entirely gratuitous

I am respectfully Yours

Signed Wm T. Russell
